CITATION

TO RECEIVE THE INSIGNIA OF MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL ORDER OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE GAMBIA (MRG)

LAMIN CONTEH

Lamin Conteh was born in Njaba Kunda, North Bank Region of The Gambia. He attended Methodist Primary School from 1986 to 1991 and the Gambia Muslim High School from 1991 to 1995. From there in 1999, Lamin Conteh proceeded to The Gambia Technical Training Institute (GTTI) for Higher National Certificate in Electrical and Electronic Engineering which gave him courage to pursue Bachelor of Science in Electrical and Electronic Engineering at Fontys University of Professional Education in Eindhoven, Netherlands. In 2010 Mr. Conteh zealously went to attend University of Luebeck and Luebeck University of Applied Sciences at Luebeck, Germany and obtained Master of Science in Biomedical Engineering.

He served Gambia Technical Training institute (GTTI) from 1999 to 2000 as Lecturer in Electrical and Electronic Engineering after which he was able to secured appointment with Technical University (Tule) and Catharina Hospital at Eindhoven in Netherlands where he served for four months.

From September 2007 to November 2009, he served in Fraunhofer Institute For Biomedical Engineering (IBMT) at Saint Ingbert, Germany.

Mr. Lamin Conteh is the Chairman and Founder of CareGambia Foundation, since 2003. He possesses various valued and marketable skills which the world and The Gambia in particularly is eyeing on him for further Socio-economic, scientific and cultural advancement of human race.

In recognition of his immense contribution to nation building, this insignia is been conferred to him